Miss Constance Waldron Williams Married to J. T. Terry, Jr.

W. A. BAKER, JR., WEDS MISS ELLA LINDLEY

Miss Eva Alfrieda Price Bride of Elmer Stoughtenburgh Hobson.

tune was ushered in yesterday with a number of weldings, both in and out of town, of much interest to New York sotime of them was that of Miss Constance Waldren Williams, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Waldron Williams, whose marriage to John T. Terry, Jr., of this ok place vesterday afternoon in g. Thomas's Church in the presence of a arge gathering in New York society. The Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Stires performed the ceremony, which was followed by a rewas decorated with palms, ferns, white cses, Easter lilles and daisies. The bride was excerted to the altar by her father who gave her away. She wore a gown of white satin and chiffen, with a veil of old ace, the gift of her grandmother. She bouquet of white orchids and Miss Joy Williams and Miss Hope Williams, sisters of the bride, were maids They were dressed in simple rocks of white organdle, with sashes of electric blue satin, with which they were hats trimmed with pink roses, uquets were of rambler roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Adeline Town Miss Vouletti Proctor, Miss Marmret Hamilton, Miss Betty Carson, Miss Symington and Miss Cornella P. Thus were white organdie, with with daisies.

best man, and the ushers were Leon T.

Meinhard, Edwin Hilson, D. Wolff, Will-

were William K. Dick, Irving H. Rand, David S. Baker, Bichard C. Sar-Loman N. Hine, Edwin C. Stanton. Goodene and Seth Barton French, honeymoon in the Adirondacks. Mr and Mrs. Terry left last night on

Mr. and Mrs. Douw Ferris, H. W. Will- land, by the Rev. Joseph Reynolds, rector tams, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Terry, Mr. of the church. Wyllys Terry, the Rev. Dr. Halsted Myers, Mr. and Mrs. cousin of the bride. erdore M. Taft, Dr. and Mrs. George. The bride were a gown of ivory satin. hen H. Brown, Colonel and Mrs. Al- beth Clement Field, of Chicago, Wagstaff, Miss Margaret Wagstaff, Franklin S. Richardson, Mrs. W. Frederick Brooks, Miss Mary H. oks and her flance, A. Tingley Wall hert E. Sands. Miss Katharine for relatives and intimate friends. ine Warren, Mrs. Dewees W. Dilworth, and Mrs. Francis E. Storer, Miss Groot Hastings, Miss Beth Miss May Moulton, Miss Kate Willis, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Mor-Albert Symington, Mr. and Mrs. William New Jersey Jurist Twice NOTABLES ATTEND Moore Carson, Miss Rosette Carson, Mr. mend P. O'Brien.

West 8th st. The house was decorated fined him to his bed until his death. with paims and southern huckleberries. ception, given by her grandmother, Mrs.

The bride, who was given away by her fets, with three-tier skirt, trimmed with hand-embroidered organdie. Her tulle tell was held with a wreath of orange

She was attended by Mrs. Robert Van Valzah, Miss Marion Floyd Whitman, Miss Eugenie Baker, Miss Eleanor Du Bols, Miss Marjorie Winants, Miss Lillian Egleston, Miss Charlotte Baker, Miss Helen Floyd and Miss Katherine Du Bois. They were all dressed alike in white mult with girdles of dark blue satin moire, and bire white leghorn hats, trimmed with lisk roses. They carried clusters of pink

he ushers were Nicoll Floyd, jr., Fitch Haskell, Harold Ober, William Latta, Delafield Du Hols, Walter Thomas, Alan Esker and Herbert Jessup.

Richard Delafield, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd R. Du Bois, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wagstaff, daughter, who died in childhood. t, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Du Bois, Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Floyd Du Bois, Mrs. Albert Delafield, Mr. and Mrs. Maturin Delafield, harles E. Pellew and Mr. and Mrs. Waier H. Crittenden.

The marriage of Miss Eva Alfrieda orthrup Price, to Elmer Stoughtenfollowed at the home of Mr. and man, and the ushers were Dr. James Cooley, of Brooklyn, and Pierre 4 Tourette.

Lucile Miller, daughter of Mr.

alley and white roses.

TWO BRIDES OF YESTERDAY.

Photo by Marceau Mrs. William Edgar Baker, ir., and her matron of honor, Mrs. Robert Van Valzah.

only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Ed-Dr. Leon Watters was his brother's iam Grouppa, Albert Grouppa and Mr. and Mrs. Watters will spend their laughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percival Wood Among those at the church were Mrs. Clement, of Rutland, Vt., and Horace T. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. if L. Hotch- Brown, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Will-Mrs. Floyd Williams, Mrs. Ernest lam Thayer Brown, of East Orange, N. J., M. Stires, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams, was celebrated in Trinity Church, Rut-

There was a special musical programme Roderick Terry, Roderick Terry, ir., Mr. rendered by Willis Alling, organist of St. and Mrs. S. Oakley Vander Poel, Dr. and Mark's-in-the-Rouwerie. New York, a tince, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Rives, Mr. tended by her two nephews, John Apple-Allen Townsend, Mr. and ton and Robert Clement Knowles, of Bos. ton, and her nieces, Lindsay and Eliza-

Mr. Brown's best man was John T. and Mrs. Lindley Tappin, Mr. and Pratt, of New York, and the ushers were John C. Johansen, Wyllys E. Dowd, jr., and Robert Clement, of New York, and and Mrs. W Ross Proctor, Mr. and William H. Field, of Chicago. The ceremony was followed by a breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, Brookside,

Mr. and Mrs. Brown will sail Thursday Miss Margaret Warren, Miss Su- for England. On their return they wil live near Springfield, Vt., for the remain-

JUDGE VOORHEES DEAD

Stricken While on Bench. vis. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jennings, Miss. The funeral of Willard Penfield Voor-Mercedes de Acosta. Mr. and Mrs. Ber- hees, justice of the New Jersey Supreme tram Borden, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Court, who died on Sunday night at his

Tagcher, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Barker, home in New Brunswick, will be held to-Mr. and Mrs. W. Herbert Adams and Mr. morrow afternoon in the First Presbyterian Church, that city. Justice Voorhees, who was sixty-three

Miss Ella Marion Lindley, daughter of years old, had suffered two paralytic Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Lindley, of Lake- strokes, the first two years ago, while wood and Cape Town. South Africa, be- | seated on the bench, and the second last came the bride of William Edgar Baket, fall, after he had resumed his duties, r, yesterday afternoon at the home of seemingly recovered from the effects of He was descended from one of the

The Rev. Henry Sloane Coffin performed oldest Dutch families in New Jersey, and the teremony, in the presence of relatives | was born at New Brunswick on July 28, and a few intimate friends. A large re- 1851. He was educated at Rutgers College, from which he was graduated in Nicoll Floyd, of Mastick, Long Island, 1871. He soon rose to prominence at the cases, and was made receiver for several Commissioners.

In January, 1908, Governor Fort ap- Greenwood, Mosoms, and she carried a bouquet of pointed him a justice of the Supreme Court for a term of seven years. It was Judge Alton B. Parker, George McAneny, Morehead, Douglas Gibbon, Angier Duke one of the very few instances of the ap- President of the Board of Aldermen; and Quentin F. Feitner. pointment of a man to the Supreme James B. Curtis, president of the Indiana Bench without a day's experience on the Association in New York; George T. Wilbench of any lower court, and without having held any political office or exerted of the dead man; General L. T. Kitchany political influence. He was esteemed ener, indianapolis; A. T. Hert, Louisville; throughout his career as one of the soundest and ablest jurists on that bench.

in politics he was a Republican. He was a trustee of Rutgers College and of former president of the Southern Society; Charles W. Knapp, brother-in-law the F. E. Parker Memorial Home, and a of the bridgeroom, acted as best man, and director of the New Brunswick Trust when a boy, and William Scott. Company. He was a member of the Delta ternities and of the New Brunswick Club, Assistant Secretary of State. Sir Courtsister, Miss Marguerite Shonts, will sail the Union and New York Athletic clubs, enay Bennett, British Consul General in for Europe to-day. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. of this city, and of the Holland Society. Neilson, of New Brunswick, and had one tary of the Chamber of Commerce, repre-

MUIR-DE SOREL.

Red Bank, N. J., June 1.-Miss Flory-Mr. Algernon S. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. ane De Sorel, a daughter of the late Ashton Crosby Clarkson, Mr. and Mrs. Count Emilio Guntero De Sorel and granddaughter of Gustave David, the noted European painter of war scenes. became the bride to-day of Lewis fice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Robert E. Lee," "Hitchy Koo," "The Hobson took place last evening The ceremony was performed at Fair West End Presbyterian Church. Haven, near here, this morning by the teremony was performed by the Rev. Rev. John H. Alger, pastor of the Meth-

AN ENGAGEMENT.

Mrs. Gustav Miller, of the Belnord, her daughter, Miss Maud A. Kennedy, to "The Forest of Fontainebleau," by Diag. Ray and 88th st., was married last Eric S. Winston, of 156 East 71st st., the The French Cavairy Charge on June 18, son of the late Dr. Gustavus Winston. Miss Kennedy, who was introduced to Fichtner, "A Spanish Cavaller," by Roy-Miss Kennedy, who was introduced to whiter a canopy of palms, lilles-of-bridesmaids at the marriage of Miss Mary Benjamin West. bride wore a gown of white satin, in St. George's Church next Thursday.

The Tribune Resert Information Bureau will assist you in planning your vacation.

So of old point lace, which has Van Rennselaer Kennedy, are well known Descriptive booklets of Hotels and Resorts bassador to Wed George W. Whitney To-day.

MISS BACON AMONG FIRST JUNE BRIDES Take Part in Selecting Chorus.

MISS RAYMOND WILL BECOME MRS. HUDSON

Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs Returns to City-Duchess de Chaulnes and Sister to Sail.

and Mrs. Robert Bacon, former Am-George W. Whitney, of Boston and New Zuro was afterward conductor with York, at noon to-day in the Church of "Hans the Flute Player" and other light the Advent, Westbury, Long Island. The operas. Rev. Richard Pope, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Endicott Peabody, of Groton School, will perform the ceremony, which will be followed by a reception and breakfast

MRS. JOHN T. TERRY, JR

GRIFFITHS FUNERAL

Diplomatists and Friends of Consul General Crowd Old First Church.

marked the funeral yesterday of John will take the guests from this city. her great-uncle. Cornelius Du Bois, 47 the first stroke. The second attack con- Lewis Griffiths, American Consul General The marriage of Miss Beatrice Rayat London, and the Old First Presby- mond, daughter of Mrs. James Raymond, terlan Church, at Fifth av. and 11th st., to Ernest Reed Hudson, will take place was crowded with men of national prominence and representatives of societies and organizations in which the dead man held Carhart will be the matron of honor, and membership or was otherwise interested. the bridesmaids will be Miss Katharine bar, was counsel in many important Evans, of the Park Presbyterian Church. Bissell and Miss Helen Rickert. Harconducted the services, assisted by the riett Coffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. father, wore a gown of pussy willow tafmember of the State Board of Water and the Rev. Dr. Anson P. Atterbury, as- daughter of Mrs. Clair Chester, will be sociate of Dr. Evans. Burial was in flower girls. J. Robert Coffin, brother-> son, Alfred F. Potts, former law partner Paul Wilstach, Lafayette, Ind.; George Carlton for a short stay. F. Parker, former Consul General at Birmingham, Eng.; Walter F. McCorkle,

The government at Washington was represented by William Phillips, Third New York, also represented the Pilgrims Mrs. Robert M. Thompson arrived in He married in 1877 Miss Sarah Rutgers Society of England. S. S. Pratt, secresented his allied organizations. Justice Adams, of the Supreme Court in Indiana, came on from the State Bar Association Flowers were sent by Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. John Hays Ham- 635 Park av., have taken possession of momnd, the New York Alumni Associa- their summer home, Wofton, at Locust tion of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity, and Valley, Long Island.

fore Sale of 68 Canvasses.

The Old Galleries, at 43 Liberty st., had Edwin Keigwin, and a small recep- odist Protestant Church. The couple many visitors yesterday at the opening were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Raiph of an exhibition of paintings by old and In Price, 60 West 113th st. The bride Rockway. After the ceremony the bridal modern artists. The 68 canvasses form The Rev. William Neely Ross was the time of the couple will spend their the couple will spend their ford Park. N. Y., by whose order they party left for Atlantic City by automobile, where the couple will spend their ford Park. N. Y., by whose order they are to be sold by C. Beauclere Clarke the summer. The artists represented include Hippo-

Mrs. H. Van Rennselaer Kennedy, of lyte E. Fragonard, with a picture entitled New York and Hempstead, Long Island, "Les Amours de Don Juan"; Daubigny announced yesterday the engagement of with a canvas "The Field of Auvers." "The Forest of Fontainebleau," by Diaz, 1815, at the Battle of Waterloo," at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. phia: Miss Eleanor Roeiker, of East Greenwich, R. I.; Miss Josephine Osborn

and Miss Mall Miss Richard Whitney will be his brother's best man, and the ushers will be Elliot ity and religious activities, and was a C. Bacon, Harold S. Vanderbilt, Harrison special patron of the Daughters of Jacob, class in tangoing, and he was at his this afternoon at the home of An old friend, the Rev. Dr. Anthony H. Fitch, Miss Mildred Holmes, Miss Eugenie in-law of the bridegroom, will act as best Among the honorary pallbearers were man, and the ushers are to be Turner a few days.

Mrs. Joseph Harriman is at the Ritz-

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Rogers will spend the summer at Southampton, Long Edgar Vanderbilt, a teacher of Griffiths Island, where they have taken Mrs. R. R. Quay's cottage. The Duchess de Chaulnes and her > town yesterday from Washington and is at the St. Regis. Colonel Thompson will > come to the city to-morrow and will sail for Europe on the following day. Mr. and Mrs. William R. Willcox, of

Mr. and Mrs. Geraldyn Redmond motored into town yesterday from their Muir, the composer of "Waiting for the VIEW MICHEL COLLECTION place at Tivoli and are at the St. Regis Mr. and Mrs. John H. McCullough and Barber Shop Chord" and other melodies. Crowds Visit Old Galleries Be. Miss Esther McCullough left town yesterday for North Bennington, Vt., where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. Henry F. Dimock will again occupy Elsinore, her place at Bar Harbor, this season.

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY.

Free admission to the American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York Zoological Park, Van Cort-landt Park Museum and the Aquarium. Public hearing of the United States Com-mission on Industrial Relations, City Hall, ion and reception of the Homecraft rtment of Wadleigh High School.

Exhibition and reception of the Homecrant Department of Wadleigh High School, school, 3 p.m. School, 5 p.m. Stock AND ONE WEEK THEATRES. STOCK AND ONE WEEK THEAT Party and dance of the Giris' Vacation Sav-ings Fund of the New York Woman's De-partment of the National Civic Federation, recreation pier, foot of East 24th st., 2:16.

Meeting of the Feminist Alliance, 315 East 17th st. 8 p. m.

Lecture by Raymond C. Schindler on "The Law of Suggestion and the Dictograph as Applied to the Detection of Crime," before Mats.Daily. Evening.

ZURO GOES TO CENTURY Opera Conductor Will at Once

Josiah Zuro has been engaged by Miltor ductors and a cherus master for the Daughter of Former Ambegin his work at once, as he will confer with the management in the selection of the members of the chorus and will con duct a school for choristers during the summer at the Century, preparing them for the first six or eight operas of the

> Mr. Zuro was born in Russia, and came to this country eight years ago. He studied at the Imperial Conservatory Odessa and at the Munich Conservatory in Munich. His first operatic engagement was as repetiteur at the Hamburg Grand Opera, where he afterward became chorus master and conductor of Sunday night concerts.

Signor Campanini engaged him as chor-Miss Martha Facon, daughter of Mr. us master of the Manhattan Opera House.

OPERA IN BROOKLYN ON ITS THIRD WEEK

"Carmen," in English, Sung at Academy of Music Under Aborn Management.

Shaleck, who was in the title role, succeeded in making the cigarette girl a very charming little ingenue-surely no small and a very creditable one, showing a marked advance over his impersonation ast winter at the Century. In his bearing there was vigor and authority, his features were mobile, and the sang the Toreador Song far better than the usual operatic barytone sings it. His voice is not a large one, and wisely he did not attempt to conquer the opening orchestral fortissimo with volume of tone. But he sang with expression and with spirit.

Leonid Samaloff, who was the Don José. displayed a tenor voice of really superb natural quality, but one which he little knew how to use-except, strange to say, in the "Flower Song," when he won well eserved applause.

The other parts were taken more or less successfully, and the performance on the whole was most admirable, considering the price of admission. Mr. Pasternack was in charge of the orchestra.

OBITUARY.

JACOB SAPHIRSTEIN.

Jacob Saphirstein, publisher of "The where he had undergone an operation. founded the paper, to which he devoted most of his time, in 1901. The funeral every night this week. will be held from his home, 183 Hooper st. Brooklyn, to-morrow.

success in publishing a Yiddish paper. Post" and three years later established scene and relieved his mind of a few his residence. 105 West 75th st., Charles his residence, 105 West 75th st., Charles "The Journal," the only morning paper facts of in East Broadway. He was also one of tipsiest. George McKay followed with Hay, J. J. Higginson, Dudley Pickman, the lirectors of the Hebrew Sheltering, a passably entertaining dance, and with-Francis Sargeot Elliot Farley and and Immigrant Aid Society, and a mem-

FRANCOIS PIERRE ROUJON.

Parts, June 1 .- Henry Francois Pierre French Academy of Fine Arts, died today. He was born on September 1, 1853. Honor and a director of the Ecole des great many more didn't. He was a Commander of the Legion of Beaux Arts. His drawings appeared in "Le Figaro" and occasionally even in Meyers and Mr. Horne had one of the May 31, aged 21. Funeral to-day at 2 p 'Le Temps."

ALFRED FREEMAN GRAY.

Alfred Freeman Gray, of the firm of Willett & Gray, sugar brokers at 82 Wall Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs arrived in the city yesterday and is at the St. Regis for & Hamlen, which became Willett & Gray in the revue this year, and his efferves- May 31 aged 56. Funeral to-day.

KEATING. Norah G. 496 Hancock st. KEATING. Norah G. 496 Funeral private. twenty years later.

including the dramatized version of sev- is no correct method of singling them eral of her brother's novels. Her hus- out for mention and as the many and band was the late George D. Day, dra- varied scenic settings have as much to matic author and manager.

Time Curtain Rises To-day

2:20-Kitty MacKay......Comedy

EVENING.

STOCK AND ONE WEEK THEATRES.

LOTS OF FUN IN 'ZIEGFELD'S FOLLIES'

Century Opera Company. Mr. Zuro will Leon Errol and Bert Williams Featured Comedians in New Revue.

MISS MEYERS A WELCOME ADDITION

Travestied in Elaborate Scenes and Lively Songs.

"ZIEGFELD'S FOLLIES OF 1914" Book and lyries by George V. Hobart Ad-ditional lyries by Gene Buck. Music by Raymond Hubbell and David Stamp-er. At the New Amsterdam.

Last year Leon Errol wore out seven thought that the Sunday articles on his stipend were about all he could naturally expect from his endeavors, but he little knew F. Ziegfeld, jr. F., jr., had his eve on Leon. With each pair of peripatetic pants that passed into oblivion F., ir. made a mental note of the peculiar qualithe Brooklyn Academy of Music with a ties of Leon Errol as a rehearser extraorperformance of "Carmen." Miss Bertha dinary. And when it came time to build a new edition of Ziegfeld's Follies for the delectation of the summer castaways in this justly celebrated city Leon Errol Gildersleeve, Miss Mabel Foote Weeks feat with the libretto at hand! The music found himself engaged to stage the entire Mrs. Daniel W. Guernsey, Mrs. Philip H. lay well in her voice, and she sang with production. Sir Joseph Porter may have achieved a certain distinction with his highly polished legal doorknob, but it was nothing compared to the heights to Jeffrey which our hero comedian has raised him self by his shattered garments. It proved to be a wise choice. Last night's performance of the "Ziegfeld Follies of 1914" at many things, but chiefly for the excellence of its ensemble and the unusual interest of its scenes. Our hero is credited that go to make up this latest Ziegfeld revue, space and words fail us. We can divulge this much, however: The first scene is in "Hell" and the last in "Palm Beach." Much happens en route. When there isn't a beyy of Ziegfeldy girls to dance and sing there are Leon Errol and Hert Williams specializing in their best and most amusing manner. Also there is Anne Pennington with a solo dance that is quite bewitching and a Miss Meyers (the first name is not recorded), who sings ured position on the programme. On the whole, Mr. Ziegfeld has wrought well, Jewish Morning Journal," died yesterday and he and his assistants will probably at the Jewish Hospital in Brooklyn, reap the reward of their labors from a grateful public this summer. We are He was sixty years old and came to making this statement from a careful this city in 1887 from Bylestok, Russia, analysis of a small portion of the public where he was born. Mr. Saphirstein present last night. At least seven-

"Hell," the first scene, contained a great many good intentions, some of As the sen of a merchant, Mr. Saphir- them fulfilled and some merely well stein grew up in mercantile pursuits, but meant. Gertrude Vanderbilt and a giddy his literary proclivities caused him to chorus warned every one to "Be Careful take up newspaper work. After several What You Do," to some effect, and Arthur Deagon skimmed very close to the Years in Warsaw he came to New York. Deagon skimmed very close to the He opened a small printing office in deckled edge with "My Little Pet Chick-Wayne, aged il years. Burial Tuesday, Wayne, aged il years. Canal st and in a few years made a en," said chicken appearing as a sweet young thing on a huge spit. Bert Will-In 1898 he founded "The Jewish Abend tems sang "I'm Cured" in the second humor by her graceful dancing. In this out further ado the affair proceeded until Simple and comparatively brief services Francis R. Appleton, jr. A special train ber of the Adath Israel. Politics also teristic of is not mentioned, but it certainly occasioned a deal of discomfort. for it include ! a medley of those patriotic songs we have been taught to revere Roujon, permanent secretary of the and respect since our childhood by standing up and looking solemn. A great many in the audience did this and a

> In the second division of the revue there best songs of the evening in "Good Night," and sang it with such grace as bers of some of the principals. Bert > Williams and Leon Errol made a good > deal of fun out of their corons good > 1. Funeral to-morrow at 9 a. m. to make it stand out far above the numst., died yesterday at his home, 32 Reid deal of fun out of their opportunities av., Port Washington, Long Island. He av., Port Washington, Long Island. He in a skyscraper scene and quite justified was born in 1856, and at the age of fifteen the elaborate setting. Our old vaudeville 31. Funeral to-day. cing style of good humored foolishness seemed to take just as well last night as May 31 aged 55.
>
> May 31 aged 55.
>
> KELEHER, John J., 127 Guernsey st. May 39, aged 65. arrival of the 2.36 train from the Pennsylvania Station > seemed to take just as well last night as well last night as ever. Vera Michelena appears first as well last night as well last night as ever. Vera Michelena appears first as Satan and subsequently in various roles.
>
>
> May 39, aged 35.
>
> MEYER, Walter M., 1157 Fulton st., May various roles. The funeral will be held to-morrow on seemed to take just as well last night as throughout the piece and she sings right London, June 1.—Lily Hall Caine, the costumes that only a Ziegfeld cast seems able to support, go to make up the forestight. She played roles in many places ground of this new revue, but as there.
>
> | London, June 1.—Lily Hall Caine, the costumes that only a Ziegfeld cast seems able to support, go to make up the forestight. She played roles in many places. valiantly. Others, many others, clad in actress, and sister of Hall Caine, died to- able to support, go to make up the forenight. She played roles in many pieces, ground of this new revue, but as there After the final curtain fell and shut out

Raymond Hitchcock, whose hair is now grown to its normal length, and all the other people you can imagine who would attend the opening, trooped up to the new Ziegfeld Palais de Danse on the roof of the New Amsterdam. When some of the May 29. show chorus came up in costume, hard working folk left, the rest are no doubt in New York City Real Estate. KEELEN, Margaret, Paterson, May 30, aged 68, Funeral to-day at 8 a. m. Mineola, Long Island, June 1.—The KING, Adeline, East Orange, May 30, ransfer tax appraisal on the estate of aged 38. transfer tax appraisal on the estate of Charles E. Appleby, who made a fortune METHOT. Edward, Red Bank, June 1. in New York realty, shows that he left M'CORMACK, Carolyn T., Caldwell, May in New York realty, shows that he let a city property valued at $4,226,999. The net estate is placed at $4,196,949. Some net estate is placed at $4,196,949. Some NEWELL, Julia H., Bordentown, May 31, aged 79. to 934 Seventh, av., 204 and 208 West 55th st., appraised at $550,000. Property at 1825 to 1829 Broadway is appraised at $566. to 1829 Broadway is appraised at $506.- VAN CLINE, Elizabeth, Rahway, May 000, and 302 and 304 West 52th st. is 30, aged 82. held at $260,000. He left real estate in Gien Sove valued at $150,000.

LEFT $4,226,999 ESTATE

15 Girls "Make" Phi Beta Kappa. While 12 Columbians Win. Fifteen Barnard College senior girls

BARNARD BESTS COLUMBIA

yesterday were notified that they had 'made" Phi Beta Kappa, the highest scholastic honor of the course. Most of the winners live in Brooks Hall, and the dormitory fudge parties were loudly jubilant because only twelve men of Columbia's '14 class on the day before had obtained the coveted key hadge. The fifteen girls are Louise Adams, Elsa Becker, Sophie Bulow, Caroline Allison Durer, Estelle de Young, Helen Downes, Ruth Guernsey, Beatrice Heinemann, Dorothy Everything from Plays to Dances Herod, Sidney Miner, Sarah Ordway, Margaret Peck, Harriet Poore, Gertrude Raff and Helen Shipman.

Two of the elected won additional honors. The anonymously given 8600 graduate fellowship went to Caroline Allison Durer. Louise Adams won the lumbia for Last Affair. The seniors of Barnard College held their final fete de danse last night in Earl Hall Permission was granted freely by Columbia. In return the Barnard seniors saw that many of their partners were Columbia men. Although it was the last not a sad occasion.

BARNARD SENIORS DANCE Girls Get Earl Hall from Co.

On the committee were the Misses M I. Ochs, L. Ros, H. Shipman, I. Track and ex-officio L. Adams, R. Guernsey and The patronesses were Dean Virginia C

Bevier, Mrs. Salvador Ros, Mrs. Frank Ferguson, Mrs. Henry E. Crampton, Mrs. Franklin F. Herod and Mrs. Alexander

MARRIED.

DEKAY-LITCHFIELD-Miss Mary Etta
Litchfield, daughter of the late Rev. D.
C. Litchfield, of Warwick, N. Y., and Mr. Thomas W. Dekay, of Vernon, N. J.,
by the Rev. James Bristow, at Warwick,
N. Y. Saturday, May 20.

TERRY-WILLIAMS-On Monday, June
1, at St. Thomas's Church, by the Rev.
Ernest M. Stires, D. D., Constance Waldron
Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waldron Williams, to John Taylor
Terry, jr.

Notices of marriages and deaths must be ecompanied by full name and address. DIED.

Sands, B. D. W. Spencer, Charles D. Stephenson, Mary B. Tiel, Arthur R.

CRITTENDEN—On May 30, George My-ron Crittenden, at the residence of his daughter. Mrs. Adolphe E. Smylle. 40A Monroe Place, Brooklyn. N. Y. where the funeral service will be held at 5 o'clock Tuesday, June 2. Inter-ment at convenience of family. GRUENING - At his home, 26 East 57th st. on May 20, Emil Gruening, M. D. of endarteritis, in his 71st year. Fu-neral private. Kindly omit flowers.

GRAY—On Monday, June 1, 1918, at his residence, 32 Reid av. Port Washington, Long Island, Alfred F., beloved husband of Emma T. Gray. Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 3:20.
Conveyances will meet train leaving Pennsylvania Station at 2:36 p. m.

KOHLER-For the happy repose of the soul of the late Charles Kohler, an anniversary mass will be celebrated in the Lady's Chapel of St. Patrick's Cathedral at 9 o'clock Thursday, June 4.

MCRAY-At Saranac Lake, N. Y., June 1. Edward Hill Mc'ray, of White Plains, N. Y. Notice of funeral hereafter.

June 2, at 4.20 o'clock from the Church of St. James the Less, at Scarsdale, N neral services at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, June 3.

afternoon, June 3.

STEPHENSON—Mary Bryan Stephenson, wife of George G. Stephenson, at her residence, 199 Jefferson av., Brooklyn, N. Y., on Sunday morning, May 31 Mother of Frank B., George G., Ir., and Mrs. Alfred M. Bucher. Funeral strictly private. Interment, Amenia, N. Y. TIEL-At Matteawan, N. Y. June I, Ar-thur R. Tiel, M. D. husband of Eliza-beth H Badeau. Funeral service at his late residence, Wednesday, at 2 p. m.

MANHATTAN AND BRONX. DUFFY, Michael J. 389 East 183d st. May 29, aged 57. Funeral to-day at 9

EGGER, Emilie, 348 West 57th st., May 31, aged 20. Funeral to-day at 9 a. m. HAUSELMANN, Magdalena, 83 East 158th st., Bronx, May 39. KEAN, the Rev. William, at Fordham Hospital, May 31, aged 44.

STEPHENS, Hermenie, 2538 Third av Bronx, May 30 aged 21. Funeral to-day

PRENDERGAST Mary A. 185 Jorale-mon st. May 30, aged 72 Funeral to-

ROBINSON, Thomas M., 397 Washington av., May 31, in Long Island City Hos-pital, aged 77.

STEARN, Jacob, 1240 54th st., May 31, aged 74. Funeral to-day. dancing chorus—suppose you go and see the show for yourself. We can at last. May 29 aged 33. the show for yourself. We can, at least, inform you that it is well worth while.

May 23 age. Mary B. 129 Jefferson av. May 21. Funeral private. WASHBURN, George E., 280 Skillman st. May II, aged 61. Funeral to-day.

the last glimpse of the "Follies of 1914" WOOD, Robert A., & Barbey st., May for the evening, everybody, including 31, aged 54. Funeral to-day. VIDETTO, George W. 285 Brooklyn av., May 39. Funeral to-day at 2 p. m. DAVIS. Hannah M., Amityville, May 20, aged 79. Funeral to-day at 2 p. m.

SUEZEY, Louis, Bayshore, May 30, aged NEW JERSEY. GORDON, Joseph, jr., Rockaway, May HAIRHOUSE. Charles, Hacketstown, May 31, aged 85.

CEMETERIES.

The estate is divided between two sons. John F. and Edgar E. Appleby. 233d St. By Harlem Train and by Irelian.